The Jeweled Flower Very Popular—Light Red Rubies and Light Green Emeralds Very Charming Combination—How to Make a Rose Jar—Fashion Notes and Novelties—Rich Dresden Ribbons for Girdles—Three Exceptionally Good Recipes.

JEWELLED FLOWER POPULAR.

A popular ornament of the moment is one that hails from the Riviera—the jeweled flower. A carnation, for instance, is carried out as realistically as possible in dark red rubies, in pale pink topazes, or else in white enamel, with spiky leaves in dull green enamel. A spray of violets is lovely when the blossoms are rendered in amethysts and the leaves in emeralds. And there are enamel roses and rosebuds galore set with rubies, pale, pink and yellow topazes, or with white and red coral. Gardenias are suggested with seed pearls and spray of yellow jasmine with yellow diamonds.

A stone keenly sought after and difficult to find is the gray-blue diamond that was first introduced to fashionable notice by a Russian jeweler. Gray-blue does not sound an interesting color for a diamond, but as a fact the gem is one of great beauty, and set with diamonds is wonderfully becoming to the complexion. A semi-precious stone that is much worn in bangles and chains is the Alexandrite, which also hails from Russia. It is called after the Czar Alexander who was assassinated. In color the stone is darkest green, and in the light you see that it is flecked with a blood-red that glistens as the rays catch it.

An unusual but a very happy combination in gems is that suggested by a well known novelist, who decked out his heroine in rubies and amethysts.

Another charming combination is of light red rubies and light green emeralds.

FASHION BREEZELETS.

Embroidery and bead work are combined on many of the new tunics and panni.

Voiles, rattines and crepes lead in favor in the cotton realm.

Chiffon taffeta, soft and supple as satin itself, is pre-eminently the thing for suits.

Piquant, tight-fitting little hats are more popular than ever—many of them coming with soft crowns of silk and chiffon.

Many girlish frocks, especially designed for college lassies, show patch pockets.

The days of 1860 are revived in the beffured dress of rosebud material. The waist crosses in front in true old-time style and a dainty fichu is worn, giving a quaint effect quite refreshing.

Gold lace combined with old rose velvet makes an alluring evening bag if finished with wee chiffon roses and gold tassels.

Rich Dresden ribbons are being largely used for girdles when finished with tassels. Clever little tunics, adaptable for wear with sheer summer gowns, are made from satin ribbon.

TO MAKE A ROSE JAR.

Now when the roses are out in their glory of bloom is the right time to make one of these delightful novelties. The rose petals should be dry when gathered. Pack them in layers a couple of inches deep, sprinkling each layer with salt. When jar is full, put in dark, dry cool place and leave for a week. Turn out upon a large plate and toss moss about with fork until loosened. Mix with the mass one-half ounce each of violet, rose and heliotrope powder, one ounce oforris root, half teaspoon mass, quarter teaspoon cloves, four drops oil of roses, 10 drops oil of chris, 20 drops of oil melisse, 20 drops oil of eucalyptus, 10 drops bergamot and two drams of alcohol. Pack in jar, cover and set in cool place. It will be ready for use in two weeks. Open the jar for a few moments and its exquisite sweetness will permeate every corner of the room.

RECIPES.

Dainty Cheese Roll.
Mash quite smooth one cupful of soft cream cheese, season highly with salt, cayenne, onion juice, Worcester-shire sauce, catsup, paprika and minced parsley. Moisten with a little cream or soft butter. Shape into a long roll, wrap well in waxed paper and put on ice. Used with crackers it makes a novel luncheon dainty, or it may be served on lettuce leaves as a salad.

Russian Punch.
An ideal beverage for social occasions. This amount will serve twenty persons. One tablespoonful of tea (preferably black) steeped well in one quart of boiling water. Strain off, add one can of one grated pineapple, the juice of three lemons, three oranges and two pints of sugar. Mix well together after the tea is cold, add one quart of cold water with brandied cherries, mint, grapes or whichever fruit is in season. Add ice just before serving.

Banana Pudding.
In the bottom of individual custard cups or a buttered baking dish place stale cake, on this sliced bananas or a spoonful of banana pulp. Fill the cups or dish with the following custard mixture: Two eggs, 1-1/4 cups of milk, pinch of salt, 2 tablespoonfuls of sugar, 1-2 teaspoonful of vanilla. Bake in a water bath until firm, then decorate with a bit of red currant jelly.

CARRANZA IS ELIMINATED

Washington, May 4.—General Carranza and the constitutionalists today were practically eliminated from proceedings of the three South American envoys who have undertaken to solve the Mexican problem by diplomacy.

In a telegram to General Carranza the mediators announced that, in view of his refusal to agree to an armistice with General Huerta, they withdrew their invitation to him to send a personal representative to participate in the mediation negotiations.

The mediators told the constitutionalist that as long as he maintained his present attitude, they must decline to treat with him. General Carranza had inquired in a note to the envoys what subjects a special representative might be required to discuss, pointing out that if the general problem of pacifying Mexico were to be approached he could not authorize anyone to participate in the negotiations. He reiterated that he would consent to mediation only on the incidents which had brought about a controversy "between the United States and Mexico," holding that he was the constitutionally chosen leader to whom complaint about the insult at Tampico and other offenses originally should have been made.

In their telegram tonight the mediators quoted Carranza's last note to them, adding that as long as he maintained that attitude, they must decline to receive a representative from him as they could not separate the incidents at Tampico and elsewhere which had brought about friction between Mexico and the United States from the general subject of pacifying Mexico.

Earlier in the day it became known that in view of the unyielding attitude of the constitutionalists mediation virtually would be limited to the arrest of American marines at Tampico and other offenses which had brought the Huerta government and the United States to the verge of war.

Lung Trouble Yielded to This Medicine

If you are suffering with serious lung trouble, it will pay to fully investigate Eckman's Alternative, a remedy which has caused many recoveries. One follows:—

5323 Girard Ave., Phila., Pa.
"Gentlemen:—In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Gripe, followed by Pneumonia, and later by Lung Trouble. In the winter of 1904 I had a cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful-looking stuff, and later I had many hemorrhages; at one time three in three successive days. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alternative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I ever had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. (Abbreviated.)

(Affidavit) ANNE F. LOUGHRAN.
Eckman's Alternative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe colds and lung affections and upbuilding the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitutes. Sold by leading druggists. Write Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for booklet of recoveries.—Advertisement.

REBELS THREATEN TO DESTROY TAMPICO

Vera Cruz, May 4.—The constitutionalists at Tampico have notified Rear Admiral Mayo, commander of the American ships stationed there, that if any of his vessels attempted to enter the Panuco river the oil reservoirs above the city would be emptied and the oil ignited, which would mean certain destruction to the town.

A refugee train with seventy-five Americans on board arrived here today shortly before noon. They left Mexico City Sunday morning. News reached here today that John R. Silliman, acting American consul at San Luis Potosi, has been a prisoner in the hands of General Joaquin Maas, the federal commander, for eleven days and has been threatened with execution.

The information about Mr. Silliman's predicament was brought here by two American newspaper correspondents who had come to Mexico recently on the invitation of Provisional President Huerta. They went to the north to watch the field operations of the federal army and after they had witnessed the defeat of the federal troops at San Pedro were taken back to San Luis Potosi and imprisoned, but afterward released.

The United States battleship New York, which sailed from Newport, R. I., April 27, joined the American fleet anchored off Vera Cruz today.

Brigadier General Frederick Funston today for the first time went beyond the American lines encircling that city. He proceeded to the water works at El Tejar, nine miles to the south, on a visit of inspection, making the trip on a short train of flat cars, which bore an escort of a company of infantry.

At El Tejar the general found all the men composing Major John H. Russell's outpost in the best of spirits. The force had been strengthened since the alarm on Saturday by a battery of artillery and some additional mines.

The village in which the men are quartered is typical of thousands in Mexico. The school house, which is the best building in the place, is occupied as headquarters.

For all supplies furnished to the troops the villagers are paid promptly and their good will seemed to have been won by the fact that the Americans have been careful to ask permission even before beginning to dig a small hole.

Both the federals and the rebels are reported to have planted mines in Tampico harbor.

It is generally thought here that Admiral Mayo will await the capture of the city by the rebels through the slow process of starving out the federals.

MEXICANS MINE RAILROAD TRACK

Washington, D. C., May 5.—Information came from Vera Cruz to the war department today that the Mexican federal troops have mined the railroad tracks from Vera Cruz to Mexico City in preparation for the utter destruction of the road in the event that the American forces attempt a march on the capital.

No confirmation had been received of reports that the San Francisco bridge on the interoceanic railroad had been damaged. The mines are reported to be located a half mile apart and Mexican soldiers have been detailed to touch off the fuses should hostilities eventuate. These preparations and the throwing up of defenses, which are daily making the position of the Mexican federal troops stronger, are known to be a source of worry to General Funston and it is understood that he would welcome orders to start for the Mexican capital at once.

Admiral Mayo, at Tampico, has informed the war department that he would have no trouble in taking Tampico with his present forces.

MINE WORKERS AWAIT REPORT

Charleston, W. Va., May 5.—District officers of the United Mine Workers of America awaited with anxiety the report of the committee sent to Indianapolis to interview the international officers on the agreement with the coal operators of the Kanawha region.

Approximately 500 miners have returned to work pending the decision, but it was reported here that in some sections the mine were idle this morning.

FIEND SLASHES GIRLS WITH RAZOR

Pittsburg, Pa., May 5.—Tired after a night of ceaseless search for the man who murdered little Florence Dove and assaulted Elizabeth Klenck at North Bradock late yesterday, county detectives, policemen and several thousand steel workers from the Bradock mills returned to their homes early today.

Others took their places and the hunt continued. Ten men were taken during the night, but four of them were released. All are closely guarded for fear of lynching.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 5.—Florence Dove, 8 years old and Elizabeth Klenck, aged 9, were attacked at North Bradock, a suburb, yesterday by an unidentified man who hacked the Dove child to pieces with a razor. Elizabeth Klenck is probably fatally injured. Three thousand steel workers, heavily armed, are searching for the assailant.

Two suspects, on account of the threats of steel workers, were rushed to jail here. The scene of today's crime is within half a mile of the place where on Thanksgiving day 1912, the body of Lillian Schadle, aged 12, was found in the Fall Hollow reservoir tied in a bag.

INSURANCE AGENT'S BODY RECOVERED

Eccles, W. Va., May 5.—The body of Freeman Linville, an insurance agent of Charleston, W. Va., who went into mine No 6 a few minutes before the explosion that claimed 172 lives occurred last Tuesday, was recovered today. The identification was made by a masonic ring he wore. Other bodies were brought to the top during the night and it is believed the mine will be clear by night fall.

ROOSEVELT AT PARA.
New York, May 5.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt is due at Para today on board the steamer Dunstan on which he made the trip down the Amazon from Manaus.

HUERTA FACES A MILITARY REVOLT

Vera Cruz, Mexico, May 4.—A proclamation dated May 1 and signed by Zapata, published in the local Mexican papers, announces that the southern rebels will, on May 5, attack Mexico City. It also condemns General Huerta and General Aureliano Blanquet to death.

Zapata's proclamation is regarded as disposing of reports that he and General Huerta were acting together and that Zapata was moving on Vera Cruz with his followers.

May 5, when Zapata says he will attack Mexico City, is the anniversary of the Mexican victory over the French, and is usually celebrated as a national holiday. Vera Cruz, Mexico, May 4.—The outbreak of another military revolt in Mexico headed by General Jose Refugio Velasco, who recently was driven out of Torreon by Francisco Villa, would not cause any great surprise in the federal capital, according to conservative observers among the refugees who arrived here today.

General Velasco is said to be discontented concerning the failure of the government in Mexico City to support him properly in the defense of Torreon, and he is declared to have stated that he would never again lead a column of troops against the rebels.

The fall of Torreon and the subsequent disaster to the federal troops are asserted by General Velasco to have been due to the failure of the war department to heed his appeal for small arm ammunition at a time when he said it was perfectly feasible to have it reach him.
